REDS ARE TAKING OVER ZIONISTS DIRECTING REIGN OF TERROR IN U.S.

St. Augustine, Fla., June 18, N.Y. News—
"Civil rights demonstrators, including a group of rabbis, staged a praying and singing demonstration at a white motel today that developed into a shoving melee and a "jump-in" at a swimming pool . . . Police hauled off 45 demonstrators, including 14 members of the Jewish Reform faith, part of a group who flew here from Atlantic City Tuesday . . . The Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth of Birmingham, Ala., an aid to integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., was among those hauled away . . . King watched from a motel across the street."

The National Jewish Post & Opinion June 26, 1964 reported the following:

"The well-publicized appearance of 16 (?) Reform rabbis last week in an attempt to integrate a St. Augustine motel swimming pool was only a forerunner of what can be expected. Rabbi Samuel Soskin, chairman of the Commission of Justice and Peace of the Central Conference of American Rabbis (Reform), said that he had 175 volunteers ready for action. He stated that several of the rabbis had personally contacted . . . King, James Farmer, Roy Wilkins and others—and told them they were ready to go wherever requested . . . The 16 Reform rabbis who were arrested in last week's St. Augustine demonstration had been rallied . . . at the group's convention (Atlantic City, N. J.) . . . King had called the convention asking for aid."

The American (Jewish) Examiner, June 25, 1964, had this additional information:

"The Department of Justice has notified Senator Jacob K. Javits, New York Republican, that federal agents have opened a full preliminary investigation of the arrest of 15 (?) rabbis in St. Augustine, Fla. Sen. Javits requested federal intercession last weekend upon hearing of the mass arrest of the rabbis."

Whether or not there were 14, 15, or 16 Jewish rabbis involved in demonstrations at St. Augustine is immaterial. What is important to remember is that Martin Luther King telephoned for these rabbis to come and demonstrate—then watched from a motel across the street while they were being arrested. This, in turn, gave Senator Jake Javits (N. Y.) an opportunity to ask for and receive federal intervention, which was the whole idea to begin with.

In an effort to prevent any further violence, Gov. Farris Bryant of Florida had banned night demonstrations. This act caused the Governor to be brought before a Federal Judge at Jacksonville to show cause why he should not be held in contempt.

The judge had held a similar ban, imposed by St. Augustine police, was a violation of freedom of speech and assembly. King was an observer at the hearing. Gov. Bryant also said he was considering banning all demonstrations both day and night. This action would guarantee to incur the wrath of the Federal authorities.

President Johnson (Christian front), Jake Javits (Zionist manipulator) and M. L. King (Negro pawn)—leaders in the anti-American, unconstitutional so-called Civil Rights Bill.

The whole world has been saturated with the story of the 3 missing civil rights workers in Mississippi. The Department of Justice ordered the F.B.I. to begin searching for them (6/23/64, N.Y. Journal American). Justice Department spokesman, Edwin Guthman (Jew), seems to be handling all inquiries regarding the two missing New York Jews and the Mississippi negro. James Farmer, national director of CORE, called for an air and ground search by the Meridian Naval Air Station. President Johnson complied with his wishes (instructions) and sent 200 sailors (stepped up to 400 later) and 8 helicopters into the search on June 25 (N.Y. News, 6/26/64).

William Kunstler (Jew), attorney for King, told the Hackensack, N.J. Record (6/22/64) that if the Attorney General (Bobby K.) doesn't satisfy their demands, they will conduct a sit-in at his office.

On June, 24, President Johnson sent former CIA Chief Allen Dulles (presently of the Warren Commission) into Mississippi for conferences with Gov. Paul Johnson, (6/25/64). Gov. Johnson had offered the assistance of the Mississippi National Guard (over 12,000 men) to join in the search, but was turned down. The best Allen Dulles could come up with was to recommend to Pres. Johnson on June 26, that he send more F.B.I. men to Mississippi "to control and prosecute terroristic activities" against civil rights workers there (N.Y. News, 6/27/64).

At Washington, D.C., the NAACP Convention called upon federal authorities to take over the Mississippi state government N.Y. News, (6/27/64). The (Communist) Worker on June 28, 1964 screamed "Halt the Terror in Mississippi" across its front page.

The question that needs answering now is where are these invaders of Mississippi coming from, who is financing them, and most important, just who is giving them their specialized training???

The Hackensack, N.J. Record of June 23, reported that "a summer invasion of Missisissippi by nearly 1,000 civil rights workers is under way, despite warnings from that Southern State that it won't tolerate outside interference in its affairs . . . Conceived by the Council of Federated Organizations, known as C.O.F.O., in Jackson, Miss., the project is being directed on the scene by 29 year-old Robert Moses, a Negro and former New Yorker who holds a degree from Harvard. Money comes from the Student Non-violent Co-ordinating Committee, the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and Martin Luther King's Christian Leadership Conference . . . Participants attend week-long orientation courses at Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio." This orientation program is sponsored by the National Council of Churches' commission on religion and race (6/19/1964 Record).

The American Jewish Committee has provided research facilities for Yale Divinity School. It was Yale University which gave Martin Luther King an honorary degree in June after he was released from a St. Augustine jail.

"Myles Horton, head of the Highlander Center, Knoxville, Tenn. . . is helping the orientation program set up by the National Council of Churches here on the campus of Western College for Women . . . his enemies have denounced him as a communist and an un-American subversive . . . His adult education school was driven out of Mont-eagle, Tenn., by outraged local residents to its present Knoxville location in 1961 . . . Rosa Parks, the woman who started the Montgomery, Ala. bus boycott, is one of the hundreds of actionists that have passed through Horton's school . . . Highlander is where . . . "We Shall Overcome" was composed." (Hackensack, N.J. Record, 6/17/64).

Myles Horton was identified as a former board member of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (cited 3/29/44 & 6/12 47 as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities). A witness who had been a member of the Communist Party testified that when he was Tennessee district organizer of the Communist Party he made arrangements with Myles Horton and others for the communist Daily Worker to be sent regularly to the Highlander Folk School, and for a communist student to go to the Highlander Folk School to recruit students into the Communist Party. The witness further testified that the Highlander Folk School cooperated closely with the Communist Party, and that when he asked Myles Horton to become a member of the Communist Party, Horton replied, "I am doing you just as much good now as I would if I were a member of the Communist Party. I am often asked if I am a Communist Party member and I always say 'no.' I feel much safer in having no fear that evidence might be uncovered to link me with the Communist Party, and therefore I prefer not to become a member of the Communist Party." (Hearings before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, March 18, 19 and 20, 1954).

AN OPEN LETTER from a CITIZEN of FLORIDA to the

LYNDON B. JOHNSON
PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES

April 27, 1964

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.
Sir:

I write this letter to you to say some things which are in the minds of a great many people in the United States today.

Our country is engaged in an undeclared war with international communism, the results of which can be just as deadly and just as final as if it were an all-out shooting war. Our enemy, Russia, has repeatedly stated her objective is to win this war, destroy the United States of America and conquer the world.

A review of the progress of this war against communism shows that the United States is losing this conflict. The people of the United States are dissatisfied with the conduct of this war and are frightened as to its outcome. The weak, compromising and cowardly foreign policy pursued by our government over the last fifteen years is responsible for the condition we find our country in today.

As the people see it and as results show this is the foreign policy of the United States of America:

- Not to win the war against communism but to co-exist with and to get along with it—to tolerate communism as a necessary evil which we are unwilling to destroy.
- When confronted by a crisis brought on by communism in any part of the world the standard procedure of our government is to:
 - Wait as long as possible before acting.
 - Take no positive action until forced to do so by public pressure.
 - Then to do as little as possible—just enough to quiet the people.
 - When time passes and the people forget—go back to the same condition as existed before the crisis.
 - But in all cases never carry through to a complete and victorious conclusion.
 - When Russia is down—go to her aid. Help her to get back on her feet so she can take up her fight against us—but never let her fall because then we might win the war which is the last thing our State Department would want. Our plan is to co-exist but never to win.
- Every action and all decisions of our government in dealing with communism is built around the word "FEAR". In every crisis manufactured by world communism our State Department is governed by Fear. They will: Take any insult—Submit to public humiliation—See our flag spit on by communist mobs—Overlook the murder of our soldiers and citizens. But they never never will do anything to make the communists mad. They just stand and take their insults like scared rabbits. This policy is a sad departure from the past courageous position which made our country great.
- The most damaging plank in the State Department's foreign policy is their gift of respectability to Khrushchev. Our country deliberately built Khrushchev up in the eyes of the world as a respectable man knowing full well he was not respectable. We gave Khrushchev the one thing he had to have in order to be a world leader and to be effective as captain of the forces dedicated to our destruction—that one thing was respectability. This was a completely unnecessary and dishonest thing for us to do. It was betrayal not only of this country, but of the people of the entire world who accepted our evaluation of this man and have followed our lead in dealing with him. By committing this act our government has adopted the philosophy that you can overcome evil by consorting and compromising with it. This cannot be done. If you embrace evil you will be overcome by evil. God will not prosper a nation who will be a party to this unholy doctrine.
- Finally, Khrushchev has been built up and is now accepted as a man of peace. You, yourself, proclaim him to be a man of peace—when he is not a man of peace—he is a man of war, vigorously pursuing war all over the world—even here in our United States.

Mr. President, to refresh your memory on the insults we have taken in recent years I list herewith the record of twenty unarmed American planes that have been shot down by Russian military aircraft between 1950 and 1964. Each one of these twenty attacks was a brutal, unprovoked and open act of war, which we accept with only a weak protest—a shameful record indeed.

April 8, 1950	Baltic Sea	No survivors
Nov. 6, 1951	Sea of Japan	No survivors
Nov. 19, 1951	Hungary	Crew imprisoned
Oct. 7, 1952	At sea near Yuvi Island	No survivors
March 15, 1953	North Pacific Area	Plane fled, crew escaped
July 29, 1953	Sea of Japan	8 dead—9 survivors
Sept. 4, 1954	40 miles at sea from Siberia	No survivors

Nov. 7, 1954	Over Japan	Loss of life undetermined
June 3, 1955	Bering Sea	Crew members injured
June 27, 1958	Armenia	Plane forced down—no casualties
Sept. 2, 1958	Armenia	No survivors
Sept. 7, 1958	Baltic Sea	Plane fled—crew escaped
April 30, 1960	Russia shot down US unarmed plane U-2 over Russian territory	Soviet Supreme delegates cheered the announcement made by Khrushchev
May 21, 1960	Unarmed American plane forced down over East Germany by Soviet fighter plane	9 Americans aboard—all captured—unhurt
July 1, 1960	At sea—50 miles from Russia—RB-47 plane	3 killed—2 captured
Dec. 28, 1960	Over Laos	Plane escaped
March 27, 1961	Over Laos	Casualties unknown
Nov. 3, 1963	Over Cuba—Major Anderson—U-2 plane	1 killed
Jan. 29, 1964	Over East Germany—jet plane—T-39 type	3 killed
March 11, 1964	Over East Germany—twin jet plane	3 shot down 1 wounded

For fourteen years we have watched the Russians shoot down our unarmed planes, murder our men, humiliating us before the world, and what have we done about it? Nothing—we just stand like cowards and take it. To me, it is utterly fantastic that the great United States would sink so low as to allow the dictators of Russia to frighten us so badly that we won't avenge the death of our own men. The best we can do is to send polite notes to Russia saying "We are unhappy about it. Please don't do it again."

I also list newspaper accounts of sixty-four times that our country has been insulted and its people humiliated, murdered and degraded all over the world by acts inspired by our communist enemies:

It is plain to see by the cowardly policy pursued by our State Department that it is now impossible to insult the United States of America. The communists know this so they keep on with their acts of violence which we meekly submit to. As a result of our weakness the United States is held in disrespect and contempt in a great part of the world—our image is not good and getting worse.

Our Constitution holds the President of the United States responsible for the conduct of foreign affairs, but in reality, our foreign policy in recent years has been established and conducted by bureaucrats in our State Department.

The people believe that the great majority of the personnel of the State Department are loyal Americans, but they also do conclude from past performance of the State Department that there are a few men in high places who do not want us to win the war against communism. These men are traitors. Also, there are men in policy making positions in the State Department who are weak and cowardly characters. The failure of our cause and the decline of our influence and standing around the world can be charged to these two groups of men within our government.

Now it is a well known fact that people under pressure always react according to their character. They never change. They will continue to make cowardly and weak decisions or strong and honorable decisions according to their character. Our country can never expect to win this war as long as the same men in the State Department who have made all these gross mistakes in the past remain in their positions where they can make the same mistakes in the future with the same deadly results. There is only one way that our country can be saved and that is by a complete clean out of all the men in the State Department who have been responsible for the mistakes in the past.

No one can bring this about except you. It is your responsibility and you will be accountable to the men, women and the little children of this country if they lose their freedom and liberty by the continued presence of traitors and weak men in the State Department.

Mr. President, I am writing this as an open letter to you for publication in the press. I would much prefer to have written this letter as a private personal letter to you but my sad experience with the members of the White House staff makes this impossible. The bureaucrats who handle letters from the ordinary citizen are rude, arrogant and evasive. They ridicule and belittle the man who tries to convey his thoughts to the President. The average citizen cannot break through these men to have his views made known to the President.

I have the highest respect for the office of the President of the United States. I realize that it is the most exacting and difficult job in the world; but, this war with Godless communism is certainly the most important thing to the people of America. Our liberty, our freedom and our lives are at stake. We must win this war. We can only win by a change of policy and a change of men who conduct this war. For that reason I have addressed this letter to you. I earnestly hope it reaches you and that you will read it carefully and give me a personal reply.

Sincerely,

Sumter L. Lowry

Presidential Advisors Communists and the Civil Rights Movement

On September 11, 1947, at Madison Square Garden, N.Y.C. Aubrey Williams (with whom Johnson carried on a telephone discussion of some length shortly after becoming the President) made the following statement:

"What they (Patriots) demand is that any man who admits to being a member of the Communist Party be fired immediately on the grounds that no man can be loyal to the United States and be a communist. It is my belief that it is precisely at this point that we take our stand and defend the right of any communist to maintain his position as an employee of the Government of the United States . . ."

On March 17, 1964, the New York Times reported: "An old New Dealer from the South who was one of Lyndon Johnson's first Government bosses, Aubrey W. Williams, was honored at a luncheon here (Washington, D.C.) today. Williams was head of the National Youth Administration (NYA) from 1935-43 and Johnson was Texas state director from 1935-36.

"A few days after he became President, he (Johnson) visited Mr. Williams in his modest apartment here. Johnson sent a letter of 'best wishes' concerning the luncheon. Today's luncheon . . . was sponsored by the National Committee to abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee." This was cited as a new organization set up in the summer of 1960 "to lead and direct the Communist Party's Operation Abolition campaign." Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as communists, including its chairman, Aubrey W. Williams, altho Williams, of course, denied that fact. (House Report 1278, 10-3-61) (U.S. Senate Hearing, 3-18-20-1954).

In a letter dated January 21, 1960, Aubrey Williams wrote Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam in Washington, D.C., complaining about the work of Fulton Lewis, Jr.: "I would like to say also, that I was responsible for bringing Carl and Anne Braden into the work of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, and that I was then and am now fully informed of their background, previous connections, and basic attitudes. I was convinced then and am convinced now that what people like Lewis take for 'radical activities' is Christian dedication. If I have ever known a truly Christian person it is Anne Braden and Carl . . . yours sincerely, Aubrey Williams." Carl and Anne Braden are both identified communists. The Southern Conference Fund is a direct descendant of the cited Southern Conference for Human Welfare and continues to publish the subversive "Southern Patriot." Aubrey Williams is President-Emeritus of the S.C.E.F., Anne Braden is editor of the "Southern Patriot" and Carl Braden is one of the field organizers.

We quote from a letter to Anne Braden from Martin Luther King, Jr. dated Oct. 7, 1959. "I hope both of you (Anne & Carl) will find it possible to become permanently associated with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference."

Aubrey Williams and Martin Luther King sat side by side at the Labor Day 1957 Highlander Folk School Conference at Mont-eagle, Tennessee. Carl Braden served several months of a 15 year sentence for sedition, until the U.S. Supreme Court voided State Sedition laws through the Nelson Case decision. Braden subsequently served 1 year in the Federal Penitentiary for contempt of Congress. (Louisiana Un-American Activities Committee Hearings, 11-19-1963).

On September 13, 1963, the chairman of the cited communist front, the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee, Aubrey Williams, wrote to David Brinkley of NBC News, criticizing his report of the House Committee's hearings on the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. He thought NBC was biased in favor of the House Committee, which would be a compliment to NBC. Williams wrote: "I was deputy to Harry Hopkins during the FEPA/CWA and WPA, as well as Administrator of NYA . . . I am asking that you broadcasters base your broadcasts on the basic American tenets as set forth by The Founding Fathers . . ."

Aubrey Williams, on October 29, 1958, corresponded with George D. Pratt, Jr. of Bridgewater, Conn. thanking him for his $10,000 contribution to the Southern Conference Educational Fund. In a letter dated July 3, 1963, from George D. Pratt, Jr. to James Dombrowski (executive director of the Southern Conference Educational Fund) a check for $20,000 was enclosed as an additional contribution.

On April 15, 1926, R. S. Sharpe (special agent in charge) Department of State, New York City wrote in a letter to R. C. Bannerman (Chief Special Agent) Department of State, Washington, D.C. as follows:

"I call your special attention to the fact that the name of Paul M. Warburg, as Treasurer of this institution (American-German Student Exchange), confirms our previous reports concerning the activities of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the Warburgs, Sir William Wiseman and Otto Kahn, and shows conclusively the interests which these individuals have in this boring in process into our college life, utilizing all of their activities on behalf of the Soviet Government of Russia . . . The Warburgs . . . are heading the German-Jewish element to create strife and discord in this country. I call your special attention to the . . . fact that this outfit picks out George D. Pratt, Jr. (Bridgewater, Conn.) who is a relative of the Rockefellers, making a Gentile front out of him, so that in case their activities result in unpleasant conditions in this country in the future, they will be able to put a Rockefeller to the front, as the cause thereof. I again say to you that the conditions existing throughout the country in connection with this (liberal) Youth Movement, are of a most serious character and that the people who are manipulating the same, are unquestionably the German-Jews mentioned in my previous communications and reports, who are backed by untold millions and whose activities are subject to scrutiny by no governmental agencies that I know of."

In an undated letter from Aubrey Williams to Martin Luther King, Williams tried to encourage King not to call off the March on Washington. "I want to tell you of a similar situation . . . it was the time we were trying to get the President (FDR) to set-up the FEPC. He was hesitating for fear it would slow down war production. Walter White and A. Philip Randolph sent out word to organize a march on Washington . . . The President sent me to New York to persuade White and Randolph to call off the march. When I got there I called Mrs. Roosevelt who was in New York at the time. I also called Walter and Philip and Anna Rosenberg, asking them to meet me at Mayor La Guardia's office. White and Randolph said they would not call off the march unless the President issued an order making it mandatory that firms with Government orders hire Negroes on a basis of equality.

La Guardia called the President. FDR fumed and pleaded that such a march would turn the people against the Negro. That it would be a dis-service to the Nation in time of war. White and Randolph stood firm. I must say FDR got precious little support from Mrs. R for she strongly favored the issuance of the order. I took the phone from La Guardia and asked the President to call a conference of all agency heads which were involved and to invite White and Randolph to be present. This he agreed to do. When we were all assembled the President asked several for their opinion, and finally Randolph. The President waved us all out, saying to Secretary of War, Mr. Stimson, who favored the issuance of the order, 'Have Fiorello, Aubrey, Anna (Rosenberg) and Bob Jackson draw up an order.' This we did clearing it with White and Randolph. But it was weeks before the President would sign it. Finally one day Anna Rosenberg put the order down on his desk in front of him and literally screamed, 'Mr. President sign it, or the Negroes will march on Washington within the next ten days.' The President then signed it. Remember you get nothing for free . . . warm personal regards, Aubrey Williams."

The Anna Rosenberg referred to in Aubrey Williams' letter to Martin Luther King was identified by a former important Communist Party member, Ralph DeSola, in his sworn testimony in a Senate investigation as to Anna Rosenberg's fitness to become Asst. Secy. of Defense. The Senate Committee Hearings were held prior to Mrs. Rosenberg's confirmation as the first Assistant Secretary of Defense under Truman's Administration when her confirmation was questioned.

DeSola further testified (12-8-50) that "Anna Rosenberg can be trusted . . . to fill our government with . . . subversive people—communists . . . Anna Rosenberg . . . was responsible for passing on the appointments of some of Harry Hopkins' closest administrators such as . . . Aubrey Williams . . . Without exception they showed strong communist tendencies and did all they could to promote un-Americanism . . ."

According to the N.Y. Times, Anna Rosenberg has paid President Johnson at least one visit to the White House since he assumed office—no doubt in an advisory capacity. On July 19, 1962, Anna Rosenberg married Paul Hoffman, director of the U.N. Special Fund which sends U.S. taxpayers' dollars to Castro's Cuba. On June 1, 1964, the Hoffmans were guests of the Johnsons at the White House dinner honoring the Prime Minister of Israel (6-26-1964, National Jewish Post & Opinion).

WHAT WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW IS

—why is it communists, reds and left-wingers are leaders in the so-called Civil Rights fight?

—what is Anna Rosenberg up to next?

—what official business does President Johnson have with Aubrey Williams whose association with communist fronts is well known?
